F O R E W O R D

*Backward, flow backward, O tide of the years!
I am so weary of toil and of tears —
Toil without recompense, tears all in vain!
Take them, and give me my childhood again.*

The object of this annual has been to record in the most pleasing fashion, the activities and achievements of our Alma Mater during the past year. If, in the future you will be able to recall some of the events of '29 by glancing through this book, the Staff will consider that their efforts have not been in vain.

Think Of Rest But Work On

Mr. Ritz, or "Joe", the janitor, is a friend of everybody. He is always willing to go out of his way to help the students. Besides doing his regular work very well, he is occasionally seen helping the boys play horseshoe or giving them advice to master the Barnyard Art. The students of Red Lion Junior-Senior High School and the Class of '29 take this opportunity to express their appreciation to "Joe" for all he has done to make the school a happy and healthful place to spend four pleasant years.

Miss Peterson—Is your absence excused?

Carl Sliver—No, you have to die around here to get an excused absence.

Mr. Jordan was angry: "What're ye comin' home with your milk pail empty fer? Didn't the old cow give anything"?

"Yes", replied Mitchell, "Nine quarts and one Kick".

Mr. Johnston—What is Boston noted for?

Amos—Boots and shoes.

Mr. Johnson—Right! Now what is Chicago noted for?

Amos—Shoots and booze.

Mrs. A. P. G. Smith—My son is getting on so well in school, he is learning French and Algebra. Now Charles, say 'How do you do' to the lady in Algebra.

A Summer Job and a Plan to Start a Bank Account

Every industrious boy wants to turn his hand to something useful after school is out for the summer.

There's a profitable job for every boy who is really willing to work and who will put on his thinking cap.

Planning your work, and then working your plan—that's all there is to success in any line you take up.

Summertime work gives to boys—and girls too—a particularly good chance to save and bank some money.

They'll want it for college, or business or homes later on, so the earlier the start is made, the better.

To boys and girls who will make it a point to call here within the next few days we have a plan to confide — something of interest and advantage to you

John Wise—Have you read “20,000 Leagues Under the Sea”?

Dwight—Sure.

John—Wasn’t it too deep for you?

Maurice—Do you use tooth paste?

Cleon—Certainly not. None of my teeth are loose.

A Chaperone is flaming youth’s fire extinguisher.

Myrtle—Oh, Ma. C’mere quick!

Mother—What is it?

Myrtle—Look, Romaine ate all the raisins off the sticky brown paper.

Woodrow—Heard you were sick.

Harold—Yea, I had the chimney disease.

Woodrow—Chimney disease? What's that?

Harold—Flu.

Amos—I say, Art, did you know that those antique stores on Madison Avenue sell stolen goods?

Art—Why, how do you know?

Amos—I noticed that almost all of them have signs in the windows "Hooked Rugs".

Miss Peterson—Did you hear the one about the Scotchman who went to a four-ring circus?

Miss Graeff—No.

Miss Peterson—He's been cross-eyed ever since.

Otto L.—(To Valeska walking down street) May I come, too?
Valeska—You'll never come to, Unconscious.

Alice Raub—Dear, you can't imagine how I worry when you are away.
Oliver—Oh, you. You shouldn't do that! I'll always return, you know.
Alice—Yes. That's what I worry about.

Mother—Now go to sleep, Carl. A big boy like you must not be afraid of the dark and besides the Angels are right here beside you.

Carl—(After mother had turned out the light) Mother, do angels bite?

Mother—Of course not. Why?

Carl—Then there's some darn thing in this bed besides me and the Angels.

Bill Trout—(Looking up at an aeroplane) I'd hate to be up with that.

Bill Smith—I'd hate to be up without it.

This Bank Does Not Measure Its Service in Terms of Profit Only

One secret of our growth lies in the fact that we have not tried to please ourselves, but to please our customers with a conservative, efficient and courteous service.

We do not believe in red tape. However, we do believe in taking a careful interest in our depositors and their business and trying in every possible way to serve them in the way they want to be served.

We are chartered under the Banking Laws of the United States and are authorized by the State of Pennsylvania to do any form of trust business.

We are members of the Federal Reserve System, which is the largest and strongest banking association in the world. We are also a United States Depository.
